DEALING IN FUTURES.

Lord Roberts Talks About Leading His Troops Into Pretoria.

BRITISH RESTING AT BLOEMFONTEIN

London War Experts Are Anxious to Know Where Boers Under General Joubert Will Resist English Army.

London, March 16.—Lord Roberts' success in handling the civil problems at Bloemfontein and the apparent equanimity with which the residents of the capital of the Orange Free State accept the British occupation momentarily eclipse in interest the military situation.

It is believed here the commander-in-chief of the British forces in South Africa will soon push on to Pretoria, but Great Britain is quite content to listen for a few days to the acclamations of the people of Bloemfontein, and permit the troops to enjoy a few days' rest before expecting further success.

Lord Roberts made a quaint speech to the guards at Bloemfontein when in his first congratulatory words he expressed pride in their splendid march of 38 miles in 28 hours.

"Through a small mistake," said Lord Roberts, "I have not been able to march into Bloemfontein at the head of the brigade, as I intended. I promise you, however, that I will lead you into Pretoria."

General Gatacre is holding Bethulie and the whole line of the railroad south of Bloemfontein is now in the hands of the British and General Brabant's column has crossed the Orange river after a forced march, at Aliwal North recently and General Clement's column being across at Van Zyl, the three columns will form an army of 12,000 to 15,000 men, which is expected to replace the forces of Lord Roberts at Bloemfontein as he pushes northward.

Just where the Boers will attempt to oppose that march is an important question, but it can not easily be answered until General Joubert is more definitely located.

Further news has reached the outside world from Mafeking dated Friday, March 9, showing that the garrison was in hard straits.

General Roberts reports that he found seven British officers and 43 men wounded in the hospital at Bloemfontein, and that they had all been well cared for. He adds: "I rejoiced the wounded Boers by telling them they would be allowed to proceed to their homes, instead of being made prisoners, as soon as they can leave the hospital."

New Regime at Bloemfontein. Bloemfontein, March 16.—General Prettyman is succeeding as governor of the town. He issued a proclamation requesting the burghers within a radius of 10 miles to deliver up their arms, assuring them they would be paid for the confiscation of their property. Mr. Frazer will act as mayor. Lord Roberts is about to issue fresh proclamations, which it is considered will have the effect of disarming further opposition upon the part of the Free Staters. Great quantities of stores captured at Wasserfall have been recovered. As a result of Weston's line-cutting, the British have secured 26 engines, and the line has been cleared to the Kaffir river. Rumors are current that President Steyn is willing to surrender. Much unrest exists among the Dutch population. The burghers described the soldiers as locusts, saying they are innumerable, and of identical color with them.

Boers Confront Brabant. Jamestown, Cape Colony, March 16.—There was much enthusiasm at Aliwal North when General Brabant's troops occupied that place. Commandant Oliver, the Boer commander, apologized for the action of the Boers during the last days of the occupation, saying he could not control his men. The British are now entrenched on the Free State side of the Orange river, with the Boers holding an advantageous hill in front of them. General Brabant is greatly hampered, owing to the lack of artillery, having only two 15-pounders.

More British Casualties. London, March 16.—It was officially announced that the British casualties at Driefontein March 10 were 62 men killed and 321 wounded, including 12 Canadians wounded.

Sailed For England. Cape Town, March 16.—The British first class cruiser Powerful, with the naval brigade, which has been operating against the Boers in South Africa, sailed for England.

PROMINENT ATTORNEYS Employed to Defend Prisoners In Goebel Murder Case.

Louisville, March 16.—As a result of meetings held by a number of prominent citizens of Louisville it is announced that ex-Governor John Young Brown has accepted the employment as chief counsel for the men arrested for the murder of the late William Goebel. This action, its promoters say, is taken in order that no innocent man may be convicted through the agency of the $100,000 reward appropriated by the last legislature. Ex-Governor Brown will be chief counsel, and with him will be associated Hon. George Denny of Lexington, W. C. P. Breckinridge of Lexington, Hon. J. C. Sims of Bowling Green, Hon. A. Willson of Louisville and several others. These lawyers have been instructed to push the cases to an early trial, and, failing in that, to institute habeas corpus proceedings in the state and federal courts.

The amended answer of the Republicans in the Beckham-Taylor consolidated suit, involving the governorship, was filed with Judge Field in the circuit court. It has been prepared by ex-Governor Bradley, Judge Yost and other attorneys since Judge Field's recent decision declaring his court had no jurisdiction in the case, and that his court could not review the action of the legislature seating Beckham. The amended answer is made principally to perfect the record before the case is taken to the court of appeals.

Prisoners at Frankfort.

Frankfort, Ky., March 16.—Caleb Powers, John Davis, W. H. Culton and Harland Whittaker were brought here from Louisville in charge of Sheriff Suter and deputies. A special detail of police and deputy sheriffs met them at the train, and they were marched to the jail through the streets, which were lined with people who anticipated their coming. There was no disorder and the prisoners greeted their friends pleasantly as they went to jail. Later all except Whittaker were released on $10,000 bond till Monday, the date set for the examining trial.

Will Appeal to President.

Frankfort, Ky., March 16.—Governor Taylor is said to have prepared a statement making a second appeal to President McKinley. John W. Yerkes of Danville and other Republican leaders were called in conference at the executive mansion and the paper submitted to them. A committee to be headed by Mr. Yerkes is to be sent to Washington to lay before the president whatever message is agreed on by the conference.

In No Hurry.

Pittsburg, March 16.—If the remarks of Judge E. H. Stowe of Common Pleas Court No. 1 indicate anything, the equity suit began by H. C. Frick against Andrew Carnegie and other members of the Carnegie Steel company, limited, will not be called for trial before next October. Attorney W. L. Scott of Dalzell, Scott & Gordon, part of the counsel for Mr. Carnegie and his associates, who have been sued, presented a motion to the court when it convened in favor of an extension of 15 days for the defendants, excepting Henry Phipps, Jr., who have not filed their answers. Judge Stowe remarked as he took the attorney's papers that he did not see any reason why the motion could not be granted, as he did not think the case would be called for trial before next October.

The Adams Tragedy.

Cincinnati, March 16.—Mrs. Charles Adams, charged with the murder of her husband at their home, was in the police court, and the hearing was postponed. At the coroner's inquest, upon the advice of her attorney, she refused to testify. In conversation Mrs. Adams has related most shocking stories of the brutality and degeneracy of her husband, as shown in his treatment of her and of their children. The mother of the dead man has wired for particulars of the tragedy and to arrange for the burial of her son.

Fought In Porto Rico.

Chicago, March 16.—The Society of the Army of Porto Rico has been incorporated at Springfield, Colonel Fred Bennett of Joliet, formerly in command of the Third Illinois regiment, being one of the organizers. "The society will include the soldiers who fought in the Porto Rican campaign," said Colonel Bennett. "This state furnished over 2,000 men in the Porto Rican campaign, and we expect nearly all of them to join the order."

Death of Sir Burton.

London, March 16.—Sir Frederick William Burton, director of the National gallery, is dead. The late Sir William Burton was born in Ireland in 1816 and received his education at Dublin. He was elected associate of the Royal Hibernian Academy of Arts in 1827.

COMMITTEE RELIEVED

Of the Russell Anti-Trust Measure After a Hard Struggle.

APPROPRIATION BILL PRESENTED.

In the Senate Mr. Dodge Makes a Statement Concerning the Criticism of His Vote on Clark Local Option Bill.

Columbus, O., March 16.—Chairman McKinnon of the finance committee introduced in the house the general appropriation bill for 1900, carrying total appropriations of $3,887,433, including the first installment of $250,000 for the Ohio centennial, as authorized by the Griffin centennial bill. This with the partial appropriation bill passed earlier in the session, aggregating $837,832, makes a total appropriation for this year of $4,672,033, as compared with the total appropriations of $4,121,908 for 1898. The appropriation bill for 1901 will be materially the same as for 1900. It will be completed soon.

The bill was placed on the calendar for passage at 10:10 a. m., Tuesday.

Supplemental to the appropriation bill was a special act introduced by Mr. Hagenbuch providing for increasing the levy for Wilberforce university for 1900 only, from .01 of a mill to .02 of a mill, and to revert to the original levy of .01 of a mill after this year. Another supplemental bill was introduced by Mr. Armstrong to require the expense of transportation of patients to the epileptic hospital at Gallipolis to be defrayed by the county of which the patient is a resident.

After a bitter fight the Russell bill was rescued from the special committee on trusts, to which it was consigned.

Judge Russell, the author of the bill, and who is a Republican, delivered a speech that was a scathing castigation of the scheme to kill his bill. He openly charged that the trust committee was not gotten up for an honest purpose.

Mr. Brumbaugh, among other things, charged that three members of the trust committee were known to be opposed to the Russell bill when it was pending before the judiciary committee.

Before the vote was taken a call of the house was demanded and 87 members responded. The vote on the motion to reconsider, which was the real test, resulted yeas 47 and nays 38.

There was quite a round of applause among the visitors when the result of the vote was announced. Mr. Griffin tried to carry the whole matter over until Tuesday by a motion that further consideration be postponed till Tuesday morning. It lacked only five minutes of the hour of adjournment, and the three appropriation bills were ready for introduction. The finance bills were rushed in, and each given its second reading. The clock actually stood still at the spectacle of such expedition. Mr. Griffin's motion was then voted on, a rollcall being demanded, and was defeated by a vote of 47 nays to 26 yeas. The pendulum of the clock began swinging again.

Mr. DeRan made a motion to restore the Russell bill to the calendar, which carried, and the house adjourned till Monday.

The house committee on public ways decided by a vote of four to three to report the Tuller interurban railroad bill without recommendation.

In the Senate.

Senator Dodge made a personal statement regarding the criticism made upon him for his vote on the Clark local option bill.

Mr. Dodge stated that in his talk with Rev. Baker after the defeat of the bill the latter admitted he (Dodge) had never promised Baker to vote for the bill. Rev. Baker denies this in an interview.

The report of his statement referring to the Lincoln day conference was stricken out of the official report made by the stenographer, at the suggestion of Senator Patterson and Lieutenant Governor Caldwell, who saw that Senator Dodge, in squaring himself, had put it in evidence that the defeat of the Clark bill was agreed upon at a conference of the Republican leaders at Cincinnati at the time of the Lincoln banquet.

Senator Royer introduced a bill that drives hard at debenture and investment companies. It provides that no such corporations can issue bonds or debentures, with a provision by which any money paid in by the purchaser, excepting only a membership fee not exceeding $3, can be forfeited in any way. It provides that the license of all such companies now doing business in the state, whether incorporated here or in other states, shall be revoked, and any person proceeding with such business shall be punished with a fine of from $100 to $1,000, and imprisonment not exceeding one year.

Senator Lawrence introduced a bill providing that probate court notices shall be published in two papers of opposite politics.

Senator Sieber introduced a bill providing for uniform notices to be sent out by the decennial appraisers. He says the law is lame on this point.

The McGlinchey full crew bill was reported back to the senate unexpectedly, recommending its indefinite postponement. This report was agreed to and the bill is killed.

The McCurdy bill (Troy bond repealing bill) was killed. Senate adjourned till Monday.

COMPLETE REPORT

Of the Proceedings In Couer d' Alene Investigation Agreed Upon.

Washington, March 16.—The taking of testimony in the Couer d'Alene investigation before the house military committee suspended in order that the committee might hold an executive session to determine how far the official record of the proceedings should include the speeches and personal controversy which have occurred of late. Representatives Lentz and Sulzer contended that everything should be included with a record vote, including names, on each division. It was decided, however, by a vote of nine to five on party lines to keep the record down as far as possible to the actual questions, answers and votes. Subsequently, this was amended so that all that has heretofore occurred will stand, but hereafter the committee will determine as circumstances arise whether arguments and controversies shall be included.

The Ship Canal.

Washington, March 16.—Representatives of the Chicago sanitary board were at the capitol and presented to the senate and house memorial favoring the construction by the United States government of a deep waterway from Lake Michigan via the Chicago sanitary and ship canal and the Des Plaines and Illinois rivers, to the Mississippi river. The memorial is handsomely illustrated and shows the magnitude of the work already done, the total cost of construction, including interest account aggregating $34,000,000 up to Jan. 1, last.

In the Senate.

Washington, March 16.—The senate convened to conclude, if possible, between that hour and noon the formal reading of the Alaskan code bill. Only two or three senators were present during the earlier part of the session. Mr. Carter (Mont.), who reported the bill, was in the chair, and Mr. Bate (Tenn.), who has kept close attention upon the reading of the measure, did not leave his seat until the last word of the bill was pronounced.

Allen's Amendment Tabled.

Washington, March 16.—The senate took up the Porto Rican appropriation bill. The amendments of the senate committee limiting the appropriation to revenues collected prior to Jan. 1, 1900, having been agreed to, a vote was taken on Mr. Allen's amendment declaring the constitution extended over the islands. Mr. Allen's amendment was laid on the table, 36 to 17.

Offered a Substitute.

Washington, March 16.—Senator Jones withdrew the amendment proposing free trade between the United States and Porto Rico. It differs from the first amendment Mr. Jones offered, as the one proposed previously provided that the money collected should be repaid to those who paid it.

Ship Ordered to China.

Washington, March 16.—Secretary Long has cabled instructions to Admiral Watson at Cavite to send a warship to Taku, China, at the mouth of the Tienho river to look after American missionary interests that are threatened. He has left the selection of the ship to Admiral Watson.

Date of Quay Case.

Washington, March 16.—Mr. Hoar (Mass.) has renewed his request that a date be fixed for the taking up of the case relating to the seating of Mr. Quay as a senator from Pennsylvania, and asked that the time be fixed at two weeks from next Tuesday, which was agreed to.

Wheeler at Washington.

Washington, March 16.—General Joe Wheeler arrived in this city. He is stopping at the Arlington. He had an interview in a private capacity with General Corbin, but as yet has not paid an official visit to the war department.

Death of Bismarck's Brother-In-Law

Berlin, March 16.—Herr Von Puttkamer, 71, ex-vice president of the Prussian ministry and brother-in-law of Prince Bismarck, is dead at Varzelin. He recently resigned as governor of Pomerania.

FRUIT IN THE SOUTH

TRAFFIC IN NEW YORK BLOCKADED.

Many People Are Obliged to Walk to Their Work as Snow and Sleet Stopped the Streetcars on Various Lines.

New York, March 16.—Nine inches of snow and sleet cover the streets of New York, and 4,000 men are battling with it in Manhattan.

Three thousand more are at work in Brooklyn. Traffic has been partially paralyzed in some sections of the city since early morning. During the early hours the Brooklyn bridge traffic was practically blocked. The sleet on the third rail, supplying electric power to the bridge cars, cut off the current and a general blockade was the result. The trolley lines over the bridge were not much better, and thousands of persons were forced to walk across the structure in the face of a cutting wind and sleet.

Surface traffic was, of course, everywhere delayed and the Fifth Avenue Elevated road, which uses the third rail electric system in Brooklyn, was completely tied up. In the crowded streets down town, fallen horses and stalled drays and trucks greatly impeded business causing many blockades.

In the outlying districts of the boroughs of Manhattan and the Bronx similar conditions prevailed.

The fall of snow in Jersey was heavier than in this city. Mail trains were delayed by the storm, and the mails were several hours behind in their delivery. In many of the suburban lines in Jersey the trolley wires broke under the weight of their coating of sleet and ice, tying up several lines completely. A number of horses were killed by contact with the live wires. No fatalities from the cold are reported in the city. The station houses and charitable institutions were crowded with homeless.

Workmen Blockaded.

Shamokin, Pa., March 16.—When the snowstorm ceased at 4 a. m. the ground was covered to a depth of 17 inches, and this place is now completely snowbound. Over 6,000 men and boys, residing between here and Mount Carmel and employees at the various collieries, are idle owing to the blockade. In a number of mountain passes traversed by trains snow drifted from 5 to 15 feet. The storm was especially severe in the coal regions, the snow fall being the heaviest of the season.

Freezing at Atlanta.

Atlanta, March 16.—Freezing temperature, was reported as far south as a line running east and west through the center of the cotton belt. Killing frost is reported at Fort Smith, Ark., near Mobile and at Macon. The rain and snow in many parts of the south was followed by clearing and much colder weather. The most decided falls in temperature were noticed in southern Louisiana, Alabama and Georgia.

Fruit Nipped.

Chattanooga, Tenn., March 16.—The worst to be feared by fruitgrowers of eastern Tennessee and north Georgia was realized in the cold wave. Reports show that the mercury dropped to 24 and everything is frozen over this entire section. Fruitgrowers will lose heavily. Johnson City reports nine inches of snow, which by its weight has damaged large tracts of timber.

New Orleans, March 16.—The weather continues cold and the local bureau sends out a prediction of frost again. Snow fell and ice formed generally, not only in north Louisiana, but in the southern section as well. In the vicinity of the city some damage to fruits and vegetables is reported. Here the temperature went down to 39 degrees.

PARTLY CLOUDY SATURDAY; FAIR AND WARMER SUNDAY; FRESH WESTERLY WINDS.

EX-POSTMASTER GENERAL DICKINSON in sizing up the McKinley administration says that its acts have been a series of stupendous blunders, executive, diplomatic and legislative.

The Chicago Record, independent Republican, very pointedly remarks that there would have been time enough for Taylor to issue pardons for Powers, Davis, Culton and others charged with Goebel's murder after they should have been "unfairly convicted." Probably Taylor thinks he had better act now while he is in the State House.

The Pittsburgh Post, commenting on recent events in Kentucky, says:

It is not possible to conceive a more startling situation. The Governor of the State protecting alleged murderers from arrest and granting them immunity from punishment before trial. It may be, as Governor Taylor charges, that Powers, Davis and Culton are innocent, and that they are the victims of a "political conspiracy," but even that does not justify him in pardoning them at this time.

MEXICO seems to have solved the trust problem. The government of that country has control of all the railroads and the telegraph system. When an attempt is made to corner an article, say corn, the railroads lower the rates of transportation to almost nothing and the trust is sent to the wall. Telegraph toll is cheaper than in any other part of the world. The fact is, our sister republic seems to be enjoying a state of genuine prosperity.

Political Arrests.

[Dover News.]
A great hue and cry is being raised, and cries of "political arrests" are being heralded by the Republicans. Well, when the assassination of Goebel was purely a "political assassination" what could be expected but political arrests? If the guilty parties hunted down by the detectives happen to be Republican politicians, is there anything strange in it all? Who else wanted him out of the way?

THE Court of Appeals has ordered a new trial in the case of Mrs. Edmonia Tate Martin, who secured judgment in the lower court against the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company for $5,000 insurance on the life of her father, James W. Tate.

MR. T. F. GOODWIN, of Rectorville, has accepted a position as solicitor for the Boden Leaf Tobacco Warehouse of Cincinnati. The Boden is considered the largest and finest tobacco warehouse in the world. Frank is a shrewd tobacco man, has had several years' experience in the trade and is one of the few who have been successful, and the management should feel complimented in securing his services.

HON. E. M. FITCH, who was the Representative in the Ohio Legislature from Brown County in the days Vallandigham and Thurman, was examined at Ripley this week as to his mental condition, prior to lunacy inquest to be held at once. The aged gentleman has for years been a sufferer from rheumatism, but with the alleged impairment of his mind he has regained his strength and activity. For fifty years past he has been a foremost farmer, stock and leaf tobacco dealer.

MR. HARRY S. ORR, of Louisville, special agent of the Southern Mutual Investment Company, of Lexington, Ky., is in our city, placing the bonds on the market. This is the oldest investment company in existence, and has $100,000 in the reserve fund. Mr. James S. Escott, President of the Southern National Bank of Louisville, is President; Hon. C. J. Bronston, of Lexington, is Second Vice President; Mr. A. Smith Bowman, of Lexington, is Secretary; Maj. John Walsh, resident agent. The company wrote in February $464,000. The company wrote in January $321,000. For every dollar you put in the Southern Mutual Investment Co. you will receive $2.15. We have come to stay and are an assured fact. It is life insurance reversed—we pay you while you live, they pay you when you die.

It Saved His Leg.

P. A. Danforth, of LaGrange, Ga., suffered intensely for six months with a bright red running sore on his leg, but writes that Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured it in ten days. For ulcers, wounds, burns, boils, pain or piles it's the best salve in the world. Cure guaranteed. Only 25c. Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son, druggists.

"VIEWED FROM ABROAD."

What Leading Republican Journals Say of Taylor.

His Latest Manifesto and Actions Have Not Helped His Cause.

[Pittsburg Dispatch, Rep.]

In other words, no matter what the proof may be at the trial, Gov. Taylor declares the right to say that the accused shall go unpunished. The crime for which they shall be given immunity irrespective of the evidence is that of political assassination. And the astounding reason for this astounding act is the assertion that the courts of Kentucky, on account of the partisanship and the reward of $100,000, are sure to hang innocent men with as little regard to the evidence as Gov. Taylor shows in issuing his pardons.

It would be impossible for anyone to produce more startling evidence of the anarchy to which factional fighting has reduced Kentucky than this remarkable gubernatorial avowal. The utterly chaotic condition of things is enhanced in the fact that it is much more certain that Taylor's pardons will not be recognized than that the accused men will not have an honest trial.

[New York Commercial-Advertiser, Rep.]

Gov. Taylor has seen fit to issue a statement about the new development, which seems ill-advised in its assault upon the State courts, charging that they "have become so partisan that it is practically, if not absolutely, impossible for any man not of their (Democratic) persuasion to obtain a fair trial." This may be true, but it does not become the Governor of the State, who has appealed to them to decide upon the legality of his own title to office, to say it. In fact, the Governor's entire statement comes very near to being an incendiary document, and in the inflamed condition of the public mind, with the leaders on both sides calling for troops, it would have been much wiser for him to have kept silent and abided by his agreement to leave the whole matter in the hands of the courts.

[Des Moines Leader, Rep.]

The crack of the rifle that sent Goebel to his end began the unification of the Democrats and the division of the Republicans, and since, by every act of omission and commission, Taylor has pushed the work along, Kentucky's mountaineer Governor has practically killed his party in the State.

[Pittsburg Commercial Gazette, Rep.]

What good reason Gov. Taylor can find for calling out the troops can only be conjectured. Even if they would obey him, nothing is to be gained by resistance. And their reluctance to obey, when there is another Governor whom the courts are expected to seat, is very natural. There, too, the disposition to evade warrants, the disguises and the attempts to escape, certainly have not helped the accused, nor could they have helped, had the plan succeeded. The Kentucky situation is again deplorable, and if a pacific solution of it is found the State will be most fortunate.

[Detroit Tribune, Ind. Rep.]

Not only is an honest man the noblest work of God, but Mr. Taylor, of Kentucky, appears to be "it." The returning boards are honeycombed with fraud; the election commissioners would rather drop dead than be caught doing a reputable act; the Legislature is unspeakably vile; the courts are putrid beyond the power of man to describe. Nothing in all Kentucky is pure and noble except Mr. Taylor, and, in view of the unprecedented condition of affairs, he has generously volunteered to act as the State Government. He is discharging the duties of Governor in spite of the fact that he has no legal title. With such a benevolent ruler there is no need for a Legislature; so Mr. Taylor prevents the Legislature from acting. The courts being rotten, it would be a terrible calamity if they were allowed to do business, so Mr. Taylor takes it upon himself to perform their functions. Nothing more extraordinary than the conduct of Mr. Taylor has ever been witnessed in American politics, and that gentleman's performance becomes the more remarkable as time flies. * * * * Mr. Taylor is by far the most amusing basswood Caesar that ever reared his head in a republic.

[Chicago Post, Rep.]

However strong Gov. Taylor's case may have been originally, he has weakened it materially since he has been in office. His course at the present time is depriving Kentucky of what little semblance of law it has had since the day of the gubernatorial election, and must seriously hurt his standing with all law-abiding citizens in Kentucky and elsewhere.

Said a careful woman after looking through the piles of dainty Underwear on our tables. "It hasn't the cheap, care-free look of ready-made garments." Particular people are the best customers we have. For those for whom anything will do there are plenty of places to buy muslin underwear. Particular people don't find it so. #### ALL IS WELL.

I know my hand may never reap the sowing.
And yet some other may;
And I may never see its growing—
So short my little day.

Still must I sow, although I go forth weeping,
I cannot, dare not stay;
God grant a harvest, though I may be sleeping
Under the shadows gray.

Others shall sing the song,
Others shall right the wrong:

Finish what I begin,

And all I fail of, win.

What matters I or they.

Mine or another's day,

So the right word be said

And life the sweeter made.

KENTUCKY TROUBLES.

Taylor's Defiance of the Law—Hon. G. B. Poynz's Courage to Face the Storm.

[Enquirer.]

Mr. S. N. Meyer a retired merchant of Maysville, Ky., who resided in this city more than half a century ago, and wife, who have been at the Gibson House for four months, will remain under Manager Hunt's careful attention until April, when they will return. "I was born in the southwest part of Germany," said Mr. Meyer, "and was clerking in Cincinnati in 1846, and was a member of a fire company. In 1848 I went to Maysville, Ky., to get into business for myself. I know the people of that State well, and have never had any trouble in dealing with them. Most of this fighting and the feuds, as well as the holding back of election returns, are in the mountainous southeast section, where Taylor got his biggest vote, where he got his body guard of desperate men, and where he has been organizing companies of militia recently, and furnishing them rifles, cannon and Gatling guns to come to Frankfort at his beck and call or protect him when he flees to them.

The only constitutional tribunal in the State to try the contested cases of Governor and Lieutenant Governor was the Legislature, the paramount power of the Commonwealth fresh from the people, from which there is no appeal, but this man Taylor defies the law, disperses the Legislature after his opponent in the contest is assassinated and still surrounds himself with what State troops will serve his purposes? He repudiates the action of the ablest and best men of his party, and puts himself in the possession of the riffraff of the Republican party and the attorneys, who are getting fat fees from him and his associates. It is an unparalleled, indefensible and deplorable state of affairs, for which Taylor is responsible. It is my belief that the State Election Commissioners, the two who decided that their duties were simply clerical, and gave the certificates of election to Taylor, would have decided otherwise if they had not been intimidated and scared. Mr. Poynz, the commissioner from our city, had the courage to face the fury of the storm and declare the Democrats legally elected."

Hon. John W. Alexander, Representative from Mason County, Kentucky, was at the Palace Wednesday en route home, the Legislature having adjourned. He thinks Governor Beckham will call an extra session this spring to put through much needed legislation, the passage of which was rendered impossible by unprecedented events and excitement at Frankfort. It is his opinion that Taylor will endeavor to hang on until the United States Supreme Court turns him down as Federal Judge Taft did here.
